OWNER'S BRIEF · EVERY MORNING

Owner's brief

Last night, on your phone at 8

- Takings
  Against recent nights like it, last week, and the month so far against the last
- Cash
  What was counted, what the till expected, and anything paid out
- Check
  Voids, refunds, open tabs, wrong PINs, a shift left open
- Sold
  The best sellers, the categories, what the specials gave away
- The night
  When the till opened and closed, the busiest hour, who sold what
- Stock at or under par
- The week so far against last week, day by day
- Your events
  What each took in its hours, today's and what is coming
- And "What I'd do"
  Two to four things to do this week, written from your own figures.
- By email too
  The same brief by email to up to three people: your accountant, a partner, a manager.
- Yours to set
  You choose the time, Telegram or email or both, and whether staff names show.

The Owner's brief on Telegram at 8 every morning.

HOW STARTING WORKS

01
Ask for a trial
Tell us about your venue. It takes a minute.

02
We set you up
You get an invite to your account, and we help you put your menu in.

03
Pair a tablet
Open the till in any tablet's browser and type the code from your account.

04
Free to start
Free is never invoiced. On Pro, your first invoice comes after the free month: tell us before then if it is not for you, and you pay nothing.
